Army Communicator (AC) is the U.S. Army Signal Regiment's professional magazine. The magazine explores trends in the Regiment and provides a place for Signal Regiment members to share good ideas and lessons-learned with their colleagues.

AC, as the Signal Regiment's professional-development magazine, is supported by article contributions from Signal Regiment members; AC depends on noncommissioned officers, officers, warrant officers and Regimental civilian employees to contribute quality articles on topics of interest to the entire Regiment.
